To all the Fraternity to whom these Presents shall come,

THE M. W. GRAND LODGE

OF THE

Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons,

FOR THE

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,

Sends Greeting:

Whereas, a Petition has been presented to us, by CLEMENT A. WALKER, CHARLES ROBBINS, D. MCB. THAXTER, BENJ. DEAN, JOHN T. BURRILL, LYMAN TUCKER, HUBBARD W. SWETT, EBEN F. GAY, MOSES KIMBALL, J. H. CHENEY, C. W. WALKER, JOHN AMEE, WM. K. BACALL, JOHN A. WARREN, BENJAMIN FRENCH, CHARLES A. DAVIS, JOHN M. MORIARTY, JOSHUA R. LOTHROP, WILLIAM S. THACHER, FRANKLIN F. HEARD, WM.

WINSLOW LEWIS,
Grand Master.

S. BARTLETT, all Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons, praying that they, with all others who shall hereafter join them, may be erected and constituted a regular Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, which Petition appearing to us as tending to the advancement of Masonry and the good of the Craft :

Know Ye, THEREFORE, That we, the Grand Lodge aforesaid, reposing special Trust and Confidence in the Prudence and Fidelity of our Brethren above named, have constituted and appointed, and by these Presents do constitute and appoint them, the said Brethren, a regular Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, under the title and designation of “Winslow Lewis Lodge,” hereby giving and granting unto them and their successors full power and authority to convene Masons, within the City of Boston, in the County of Suffolk, and Commonwealth aforesaid,—to receive and enter Apprentices, pass Fellow Crafts, and raise Master Masons, upon the payment of such compensation for the same as may be determined by the Grand Lodge.

Also, to make choice of a Master, Wardens, and other Office Bearers, annually or otherwise, as they shall see cause ; to receive and collect Funds for the relief of poor and distressed Brethren, their Widows or Children, and in general to transact all matters relating to Masonry, which to them may appear to be for the good of the Craft, according to the ancient usages and customs of Masons.

And we do hereby require the said constituted Brethren to attend the Grand Lodge at its quarterly communications, and other meetings, by their Master and Wardens, or by Proxies regularly appointed ; also, to keep a fair and regular record of all their proceedings, and to lay them before the Grand Lodge when required.

And we do enjoin upon our Brethren of the said Lodge, that they be punctual in the quarterly payment of such sums as may be assessed for the support of the Grand Lodge, — that they behave themselves respectfully and obediently to their superiors in office, and in all other respects conduct themselves as good Masons.

And we do hereby declare the Precedence of the said Lodge, in the Grand Lodge and elsewhere, to commence from the twenty-seventh day of December, A. L. five eight fifty-five.

In Testimony Whereof, We, the Grand Master, and Grand Wardens, by virtue of the power and authority to us committed, have hereunto set our hand and caused the Seal of our Grand Lodge to be affixed, at Boston, this tenth day of December, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and of Masonry, five thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

JOHN T. HEARD,

Senior Grand Warden.

CHAS. R. TRAIN,

Junior Grand Warden.

By order of the Grand Lodge,

CHAS. W. MOORE, Grand Secretary.

WINSLOW LEWIS LODGE,
AND
EXTRACTS FROM THE CONSTITUTIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

BY-LAWS
WINSLOW LEWIS LODGE.

ARTICLE ONE.

THE LODGE AND ITS MEETINGS.

SECTION ONE. Winslow Lewis Lodge shall be composed of Master Masons, not exceeding sixty in number, exclusive of Honorary and Retired Members.

Of whom composed.

SECTION TWO. This Lodge shall hold a stated meeting in the City of Boston, on the second Friday of every month, for lectures and work, July and August excepted, by special vote.

Stated
Meetings.

Members'
Quarterly
Meetings.

SECTION THREE. There shall be four Members' Quarterly Meetings in each year, to which visitors shall not be admitted, to be held on the fourth Friday in February, May, August, and November, for the admission of members, and for the transaction of the private business of the Lodge. Provided, however, that the Quarterly Meeting in August may be omitted by vote of the Lodge, or at the discretion of the Worshipful Master.

Annual Meeting.

SECTION FOUR. The Quarterly Meeting in November shall constitute the Annual Meeting, at which the election of Officers shall be held.

ARTICLE TWO.

OFFICERS.

SECTION ONE. The officers of this Lodge shall consist of a Master, Senior and Junior Warden, Treasurer, and Secretary, who shall be elected by ballot; and of an Assistant Secretary (at the discretion of the Worshipful Master), Chaplain, Marshal, Senior and Junior Deacon, Senior and Junior Steward, Organist, Sentinel, and Tyler, and such others as shall be, by the Lodge, judged expedient, who shall be appointed by the Master, after consultation with the Wardens.

What and how appointed.

ARTICLE THREE.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Treasurer.

SECTION ONE. The Treasurer shall demand of the Secretary, every month, all the moneys he shall have collected on account of the Lodge, giving his receipt therefor, and shall pay them out on such bills as the Committee on Finance may approve, or invest them in such manner as said Committee may unanimously direct. His accounts shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the Committee of Finance; and he shall render annually (and oftener, if by them required) to said Committee a detailed account of all the financial concerns of the Lodge.

Secretary.

SECTION TWO. The Secretary shall keep a full, fair, and impartial record of the proceedings of the Lodge; shall notify all Committees of their appointment; issue Summonses and Notifications, when directed by the Master; report, at each Annual Meeting, all delinquencies in payment of dues; collect all moneys due to the Lodge, and pay them over to the Treasurer every month; and shall submit his books to the examination of the Committee of Finance whenever required.

He shall record, in a book prepared for the purpose, the names of all persons reported to him as expelled for unmasonic conduct, or rejected as candidates for the degrees, by any Lodge within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, together with the name of the Lodge, and the date of such expulsion or rejection.

He shall also report to the Recording Grand Secretary the names of all persons rejected by this Lodge as candidates for the degrees.

When an Assistant Secretary is appointed, the financial duties of the Secretary shall devolve on that officer.

Assistant
Secretary.

ARTICLE FOUR.

FINANCES.

Committee of Finance.

SECTION ONE. The Master and Wardens shall constitute the Committee of Finance. They shall examine and decide the payment of all demands against the Lodge; direct all investments of moneys, with the exception of the Members' Fund; examine the accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary, and report in writing thereon, as well as upon all the financial concerns of the Lodge, at the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE FIVE.

FUNDS.

Members'
Fund.

SECTION ONE. Each member of this Lodge, whose name is borne on the Charter thereof, shall deposit in the Treasury the sum of ten dollars, and a like sum shall be set apart from each fee hereafter received for membership; which, with the sum of one dollar from the fee hereafter received for each initiate, and one dollar from each fee which shall hereafter annually be collected for Quarterages, and also one-tenth of all sums received as fees from "Associated Brethren," shall together form a fund to be designated, "The Members' Fund." This fund shall be carefully and judiciously invested by the Treasurer, under the unanimous direction of the "Members' Committee," and the income only shall be appropriated for the relief of distressed members, their widows and children, upon the recommendation of said "Members' Committee," and by vote of the Lodge. The unexpended income of this fund, and all donations made to this fund, shall be yearly added to the principal.

Special
Funds.

SECTION TWO. All funds accruing from the advance payment of Quarterages in full, or given to the Lodge by special donation, not restricted, together with the fund now known as the Sodality Fund, shall be invested under the direction of the Finance Committee, and the income only may be used for the general expenses of the Lodge.

The principal of these funds shall remain inviolate, except by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Lodge, either present or assenting in writing.

Forfeiture of Interest in the Funds.

SECTION THREE. Every member who shall resign, or forfeit his membership, shall, at the same time, forfeit all right, title, and interest in the funds and property of the Lodge.

Income.
how to be appropriated.

SECTION FOUR. The income of the Lodge, other than that derived from the Members' Fund, shall be appropriated for the necessary and incidental expenses of the Lodge; for the relief of distressed members, and for such other charities as shall be authorized by vote of the Lodge.

SECTION FIVE. No expense shall be incurred in the name of this Lodge for other than the ordinary, necessary purposes, unless an appropriation for the same shall have been previously voted.

Expenses,
how to be incurred.

ARTICLE SIX.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION ONE. At the Annual Meeting in November, there shall be chosen, by ballot, a Committee of two, for the ensuing year, to be styled the "Committee of Charity."

Committee of Charity.

SECTION TWO. At the same time, and in the same manner, a Committee of three shall be chosen, for the year ensuing, to be styled the "Members'

Members'
Committee.

Committee," whose duty it shall be to direct the investment of the "Members' Fund," and to recommend the disbursement of the income from the same (see Article V., Sec. 1). The Treasurer shall not be eligible to election upon this Committee.

Standing Committees to report.

SECTION THREE. The above Committees shall report their doings to the Lodge at the Annual Meeting in November; and a failure so to do shall render them ineligible to re-election, except by the unanimous vote of the Lodge.

ARTICLE SEVEN.

MEMBERSHIP.

Members,
how to be admitted.

SECTION ONE. Candidates for Membership shall be proposed, through the Master, at a Members' Quarterly Meeting. The ballot shall first be taken upon the question, "Shall he be proposed?" If one negative appears in the ballot, no record shall be made thereof. Should the ballot be clear, the proposition shall be referred to a Committee, who shall report thereon at the next Quarterly Meeting, when the final ballot shall be taken, unless postponed by vote of the Lodge.

The Worshipful Master may, at any time before the final ballot is taken, withdraw the name of any applicant for Membership, and the Secretary shall then record that such name was withdrawn.

Should one negative appear at the final ballot, he shall be declared rejected. If admitted, he shall sign the By-Laws and pay the usual fee, before he can exercise the privileges of a member. No candidate for membership shall be finally balloted for unless his name shall have been borne upon the notifications for the meeting at which such ballot shall be taken.

Retired
Members.

SECTION TWO. Any member of this Lodge who shall have resided out of this Commonwealth for the term of ten years, paying for that time all his dues, and any member a resident of this Commonwealth, who has completed a term of continuous membership for fifteen years, and is not in arrears to the Lodge, may, by his own desire, and vote of the Lodge, be placed upon the Roll as a Retired Member, and be exempt from further Quarterages. Such retired member shall not be deprived of any rights or privileges which he previously enjoyed.

Winslow
Lewis.

SECTION THREE. Our M. W. Brother, Winslow Lewis, is hereby declared to be an Honorary Member of this Lodge, with all the rights and privileges usually appertaining to such membership.

SECTION FOUR. Any Master Mason who shall be recommended, for distinguished service to this Lodge, or to the Fraternity generally, may be elected an Honorary Member of this Lodge, in the same manner provided for election to ordinary membership ; and he shall exercise all the rights and privileges usually appertaining to such Honorary Membership. No member of this Lodge, however, shall, by such election, lose any of the rights and privileges he might have otherwise enjoyed.

Honorary
Members,
how made.

SECTION FIVE. Should any member so far derogate from the principles of his profession, as to reveal the private transactions of this Lodge to any person not a member thereof ; or become so contentious as to disturb the peace and harmony therein ; or be guilty of any atrocious vice ; he may be expelled, at any regular Members' Quarterly Meeting, by a majority of the members present, he having been previously notified of such contemplated action.

from Membership.

ARTICLE EIGHT.

FEES.

Table of Fees.

For the three Degrees, Fifty Dollars.

For Crafting and Raising, when Initiated elsewhere, Forty Dollars.

For Raising, when Initiated and Crafted elsewhere, Thirty Dollars.

For Membership, One Hundred Dollars.

Quarterages, at the rate of Twenty Dollars per annum. A single advance payment of Two Hundred Dollars shall exempt any member from all future Quarterages.

Secretary's Fee for each meeting, Ten Dollars.

ARTICLE NINE.

ASSOCIATED BRETHREN.

SECTION ONE. Any Brother receiving the degrees in this Lodge, upon the annual advance payment of ten dollars, shall, if approved by the W. M., be entitled to attend all meetings except the members' private meetings, receive the regular notices, and, when present, be clothed as prescribed. They shall not be entitled to a vote, and upon becoming members of any Lodge, such payments shall cease. Such Brethren shall be known as "Associated Brethren," and their association with the Lodge may be terminated at any regular meeting.

Associated Brethren,
how made.

ARTICLE TEN.

BY-LAWS.

Amendments,
how to be made.

SECTION ONE. These By-Laws shall not be amended, unless the proposed amendment be first stated at a regular meeting, and a notice thereof borne on the notifications for the succeeding Quarterly meeting, and then adopted by a majority of all members present.

By-Laws,
when to be read.

SECTION TWO. A copy of these By-Laws shall be furnished to each member, and such portion of them shall be read in open Lodge, at each Members' Quarterly Meeting, as the W. M. shall direct.

CONSTITUTIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PART THIRD.

ARTICLE THREE.

SURRENDER, FORFEITURE, AND REVOCATION OF CHARTERS.

SECTION ONE. Every Charter surrendered to the Grand Lodge, whether or not with the intention of being resumed at a future period, shall be accompanied with the By-Laws, Records, Seal, Regalia, Funds, and other property of the Lodge of every description ; and all the property of a Lodge surrendering its Charter, with the intention of resuming it, shall be held by the Grand Lodge, in trust, until such time as the Charter shall be restored, or the intention of reclaiming it abandoned. The interest arising from said funds and other property shall be made a part of the funds of the Grand Lodge, and, in case of forfeiture, the principal shall be devoted to the same object. No Charter thus deposited shall be restored, unless the provisions of this section shall have been strictly complied with, nor unless seven of the petitioners for its restoration were members of the Lodge at the time of its surrender ; and it shall be the duty of the petitioners to notify the District Deputy Grand Master of the District, and the Lodge nearest to their residence, of their intention to petition for the restoration.

SECTION TWO. Every Charter, when declared forfeited, shall be returned to the Grand Lodge, with the Records, By-Laws, Seal, Regalia, Funds, and other property of the Lodge, of every description ; and all members of a Lodge who shall refuse to make such surrender, or who shall vote to divide the funds thereof among themselves, or to appropriate them in any other way than is herein designated, shall be liable to expulsion from all the rights and privileges of Freemasonry.

SECTION THREE. If at any time it shall be found necessary to suspend or cancel the Warrant or Charter of any Lodge under this jurisdiction, for irregular or unmasonic conduct, the members of said Lodge, at the time of its having incurred such penalty, shall be disqualified to visit or join any other Lodge, without special permission of the Grand Lodge obtained on memorial.

SECTION FOUR. Any Mason knowingly assisting at the Work of a Lodge whose Warrant or Charter has been suspended or cancelled, shall be liable to expulsion from the rights of Masonry.

ARTICLE FOUR.

SUSPENSIONS AND EXPULSIONS.

SECTION ONE. Whenever a member of a Lodge, or a Brother under this jurisdiction, shall be accused of any offence, which, if proved, would subject him to suspension or expulsion, the proceedings in the premises shall be conducted agreeably to the following Rules : —

I. The accusations shall be made in writing, under the signature of a Master Mason, and given in charge to the Secretary of the Lodge, who, under the direction of the Master, shall serve, or cause the accused to be served with, an attested copy of the charges fourteen days, at least, previously to the time appointed for their examination : Provided, the residence of the accused shall be known, and shall be within the distance of fifty miles of the place where the Lodge having the matter in hand is located. If the residence of the accused be at a greater distance than fifty miles, but within the State, then, and in that case, a summons to appear and show cause, forwarded to him by mail, or other conveyance, twenty days, at least, before the time of trial, shall be considered sufficient service. If his residence be out of the State and unknown, the Lodge may proceed to examine the charges, ex parte ; but if known, a summons shall be sent him by mail, or otherwise, sixty days, at least, before the time appointed for the examination.

II. The examination of the charges shall be had in a Lodge specially notified and convened for the purpose, at which no visitors shall be admitted, except as counsel or witnesses.

III. The accused may select any Brother for his counsel ; and the witnesses shall testify, if Masons, on their honor as such. Hearsay evidence shall be excluded.

IV. The question, "Is the accused guilty or not guilty?" shall be distinctly put to each member of the Lodge, by name, commencing with the youngest. The answer shall be given standing, and in a distinct and audible manner. The Secretary shall record the answer as given.

V. If the verdict be suspension or expulsion, an attested copy of the proceedings shall be sent up, at the ensuing meeting of this Grand Lodge, for examination and final action.

VI. A sentence of expulsion shall not take effect until confirmed by this Grand Lodge; but shall operate as a suspension of the delinquent in the mean time.

SECTION TWO. It shall not be competent for a Lodge to try its Master. Any five members of the Lodge, or the District Deputy Grand Master, may, however, impeach him before the Grand Master, who shall order an investigation of the charges; and if, in his opinion, they are well founded, and of a character to justify the proceeding, he may suspend the delinquent, and summon him to appear at the ensuing meeting of the Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be dealt with according to the regulations and usages in such cases established.

SECTION THREE. An expulsion or suspension of a Brother from a Royal Arch Chapter, or an Encampment of Knights Templars, shall not operate as an expulsion or suspension from the Lodge of which he is a member.

SECTION FOUR. No Lodge under this jurisdiction shall suspend or expel a member from the rights of Masonry for the non-payment of dues. The highest penalty for such delinquency shall be forfeiture or suspension of membership; which penalty shall not be imposed until the delinquent has been duly notified of the time when, and place where, action will be taken in his case. If the residence of the delinquent is out of the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, or unknown, no notice shall be required.

PART FOURTH.

SUBORDINATE LODGES.

ARTICLE ONE.

POWERS AND DUTIES.

SECTION ONE. All Lodges under this jurisdiction have a right to convene as Free and Accepted Masons; to receive and enter Apprentices, pass Fellow-Crafts, and raise Master Masons, and assess fees therefor; to choose officers annually; establish funds for charitable purposes; and transact all matters appertaining to Masonry, agreeably to their Charters, the laws of the Grand Lodge, and the ancient usages of the Craft.

SECTION TWO. The Lodges under this jurisdiction shall be formed into Districts by the Grand Master, for each of which a District Deputy Grand Master shall be annually appointed; and it shall be the duty of every Master, or presiding officer of a Lodge, when notified of the intended official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, to convene his Lodge, receive him as the representative of the Grand Lodge, resign the chair to him while making his official communications, submit to his inspection the By-Laws, Records, and mode of Work, and deliver to him the return of the Lodge, and the dues to the Grand Lodge.

SECTION THREE. The Lodges under this jurisdiction shall make an annual return to their District Deputy Grand Master of their officers and members, of all candidates initiated, crafted, and raised, agreeably to the form established by the Grand Lodge ; for which purpose they shall be furnished with suitable blanks.

SECTION FOUR. Should any Lodge neglect to make its returns and payments to the Grand Lodge for the space of two years, the Master and Wardens of such Lodge shall not be permitted to attend, in their official capacity, any meeting of the Grand Lodge, until such returns and payments are made ; and should the delinquency continue for three years, the Charter, Funds, and Regalia of such Lodge may be declared forfeited to the Grand Lodge.

SECTION FIVE. No petition for the removal of a Lodge from the place in which it is located shall be sustained in Grand Lodge, unless said petition is sanctioned by the District Deputy Grand Master of the district where said Lodge is situated, and has the approbation of the Lodge nearest the place where the said Lodge is intended to be held ; the same to be signified, in writing, to the Grand Lodge. Nor shall any Lodge hold meetings, unless authorized by the Grand Master, in any place other than the one designated in their Charter, under the penalty of a forfeiture thereof.

SECTION SIX. The majority of the members of any Lodge, when duly assembled, shall have the right to instruct their Master and Wardens as their representatives in the Grand Lodge.

SECTION SEVEN. As every warranted Lodge is a constituent part of the Grand Lodge, in which assembly all the powers of the Fraternity reside, it is clear that no other authority can destroy the power granted by a Warrant. If, therefore, the majority of any Lodge should determine to leave the Institution, or leave that Lodge, the Constitutions, or power of assembling, remains with the rest of the members who adhere to their allegiance. If the number remaining shall, however, be reduced to less than seven, the Charter shall be returned, agreeably to the regulation in such cases provided.

SECTION EIGHT. If the Master and Wardens of any Lodge be summoned to attend, or to produce the Charter, books, papers, or accounts of their Lodge to the Grand Master, or the District Deputy Grand Master within whose jurisdiction it is located, or any committee authorized by the Grand Lodge, and refuse to comply with said summons, or give satisfactory reasons for non-compliance, they may be suspended, and the proceedings shall be notified to the Grand Lodge, when, in case of contumacy, expulsion or revocation of Charter shall be the penalty.

SECTION NINE. All Lodges are particularly bound to observe the same usages and customs. Every deviation, therefore, from the established mode of working is highly improper, and ought not to be countenanced. In order to preserve this uniformity, and to cultivate a good understanding among the Craft, some members of every Lodge should be deputed to visit the other Lodges as often as may be convenient ; and it shall be the duty of the Master and Wardens to qualify themselves in the Work and Lectures sanctioned by the Grand Lodge, that they may be enabled to instruct their respective Lodges.

SECTION TEN. Each Lodge shall pay annually towards the support of the Grand Lodge, ten dollars ; and five dollars for every candidate by them initiated ; and shall receive from the Grand Lodge as many Diplomas as they may make Master Masons.

ARTICLE TWO.

PROXIES OF LODGES.

SECTION ONE. It is the duty of every Lodge to be represented at the Communications of the Grand Lodge, by its Master and Wardens, or by a proxy duly commissioned under the seal of the Lodge, and the attestation of the Master and Secretary ; and, that there may be no excuse for neglect of this duty, each Lodge is authorized to appoint any Master Mason of regular standing, not holding office in the Grand Lodge, and being a member of said Lodge, a proxy to represent them in the Grand Lodge ; and such proxy shall have a right to a seat in the Grand Lodge during the Masonic year in which he was appointed, and to a vote when the Master and Wardens of the Lodge he represents shall not either of them be present.

SECTION TWO. Any Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, but established beyond the territorial limits of Massachusetts, may constitute an honorary member of such Lodge to act as its proxy in Grand Lodge. The letter, by which a Lodge shall appoint a proxy, is to be in form and substance as follows, viz. : —

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Massachusetts : —

SEAL.

Master of Lodge.

BE IT KNOWN, That Brother — —, of — —, having been chosen by the members of — — Lodge, in — —, to represent said Lodge in Grand Lodge the ensuing year, I do, by these presents, in their behalf, constitute and appoint him their representative ; for them to appear, and upon all subjects relating to the Craft in general and to said Lodge in particular, to act and decide as fully as though we were personally present.

Confirming the acts of our beloved Brother, in his capacity aforesaid, we pray that he may enjoy all the privileges and protection to which we are entitled.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the seal of our Lodge to be affixed, this — — day of — —, A. L. 58—.

Attest,

— —, Secretary.

SECTION THREE. Every Lodge represented by proxy in the Grand Lodge shall issue the commission annually. All commissions of proxies shall expire with the closing of the Grand Lodge on the Festival of St. John the Evangelist, or the day of installation ; and no Brother shall represent more than one Lodge at the same time, either as representative or proxy.

SECTION FOUR. Every subordinate Lodge under this jurisdiction shall be allowed three votes in all elections and other business in this Grand Lodge, whether represented by one or more of its representatives.

ARTICLE THREE.

INITIATION OF CANDIDATES.

SECTION ONE. All applications for initiation shall be made in writing over the signature of the applicant, and in the following form : —

FORM OF PETITION.

To the W. Master, Wardens, and Members of ——— Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons : —

The subscriber respectfully represents, that, having long entertained a favorable opinion of your ancient Institution, he is desirous, if found worthy, to be admitted a member thereof.

My place of residence is ———.

Age, ———.

Occupation, ——— ———.

I have ——— before applied for initiation.

Signed,

—— ———.

[Date.]

RECOMMENDATION.

I, ——— ———, member of ——— Lodge aforesaid, hereby recommend said ——— ——— for initiation.

Signed,

—— ———.

No candidate shall be balloted for who has not been proposed at a Stated Monthly Meeting, and who shall not have stood so proposed from one Regular Monthly Meeting to another, without a Dispensation therefor ; nor shall a candidate, in any event, be balloted for into whose moral character a strict inquiry has not been made, and whose name has not been borne on the notifications for the meeting at which he is to be balloted for. It shall not be regular for any Lodge which does not usually issue written or printed notifications of its meetings to ballot upon any application for the degrees when there is a Dispensation therefor, at any but Stated Monthly Meetings, without written or printed notifications to the members of the Lodge, with the name of the candidate borne thereon.

SECTION TWO. No candidate, whose application may be rejected by a Lodge, shall be proposed in any other Lodge under this jurisdiction, within six months after such rejection ; nor shall a candidate be proposed in any Lodge other than the one to which he first applied, without a written recommendation from six members of the said Lodge, of whom the Master and Wardens shall be three. And when the Master and Wardens are unwilling so to recommend a candidate who has been rejected, it shall be their duty to communicate such rejection to the Grand Lodge, or to the District Deputy Grand Master, who shall immediately communicate the same to all the Lodges under his jurisdiction. And if any Mason knowingly assist, or recommend for initiation, to any Lodge whatever, any candidate rejected as aforesaid, who may not have obtained a recommendation, and also waited the required six months, as before provided, such Mason shall be expelled from the Institution, or subjected to such other penalty as the Grand Lodge may see cause to impose.

Any candidate residing within this State, whose application has been rejected, who shall be initiated in any other Lodge, without the recommendation aforesaid, shall be deemed a clandestine Mason, and shall not be allowed to visit any Lodge within this jurisdiction ; and the Craft is hereby forbidden to hold Masonic intercourse with him.

No person who has been rejected in any Lodge in this jurisdiction, and who shall have procured his degrees in any other jurisdiction, without the recommendation prescribed in Section Two of this Article, and without the written permission of the Grand Master, shall be admitted as a visitor in any Lodge of this jurisdiction, or be entitled to any recognition as a Mason, until he shall have been formally healed by the Grand Lodge, and notice thereof shall have been duly communicated by the Recording Grand Secretary to all the Lodges of this jurisdiction.

SECTION THREE. The general rule which governs the Order in the admission of members is, that such admission is to be sanctioned by entire unanimity ; and so sacred and fundamental does the Grand Lodge conceive this rule to be, that no candidate shall be initiated in any Lodge, under this jurisdiction, without a clear and unanimous vote in his favor. Every member present shall vote on the application, unless excused by the Lodge.

SECTION FOUR. By the ancient regulations, the physical deformity of an individual operates as a bar to his admission into the Fraternity. But in view of the fact that this regulation was adopted for the government of the Craft at a period when they united the character of operative with that of speculative Masons, this Grand Lodge, in common, it is believed, with most of her sister Grand Lodges in this country and in Europe, has authorized such a construction of the regulation as that, where the deformity does not amount to an inability to meet the requirements of the ritual, and honestly to acquire the means of subsistence, it constitutes no hindrance to initiation.

SECTION FIVE. Application for initiation shall be made to the Lodge in the town or city where the petitioner resides, if there be a Lodge therein ; but if there be none, then he shall apply to the Lodge nearest to his residence ; and it shall be the duty of such Lodge to make due and careful inquiry, as to the moral standing of the petitioner, of some respectable and reliable person or persons living in the place of his residence, before he shall be initiated. And no person residing in a town or city where there is a Lodge shall be initiated in any other town or city, without the written consent and recommendation of the Master, one Warden, and two members, at least, of each Lodge in the town or city where he resides ; provided, however, that where there are more than two Lodges in any town or city, such consent and recommendation shall not be required of more than two of them. Nor shall any candidate be received from any other State (he being a resident thereof) where a regular Lodge is established, without the written permission of the Grand Master of such State.

SECTION SIX. No Entered Apprentice or Fellow-Craft, initiated or passed in any Lodge within the United States, shall be passed or raised in any Lodge under this jurisdiction, without the consent of the Master and Wardens of the Lodge in which he was first admitted, or a Dispensation from the Grand Master.

SECTION SEVEN. Any member of a subordinate Lodge may object to the initiation, passing, or raising of a candidate, at any time before the degree is conferred ; and it shall be the duty of the Lodge to investigate such objections before proceeding further with the candidate.

SECTION EIGHT. The fee demanded by a Lodge for initiating, crafting, and raising a Mason shall not be less than twenty-five dollars, including the fee to the Grand Lodge ; and no Lodge under this jurisdiction shall take notes of hand for fees, or grant any time of credit therefor.

SECTION NINE. No Lodge, in the absence of the Master and Wardens, shall initiate, craft, or raise a candidate.

SECTION TEN. No Lodge shall hold more than one Communication on the same day, nor confer either of the three degrees upon more than FIVE candidates at one Communication. No Lodge shall permit more than one candidate to be present at the same time in the first section of the first degree, nor in the second section of the third degree.

PART FIFTH.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

SECTION ONE. No business other than that appertaining to the Work and Lectures shall be transacted in a Lodge while open on the first or second degree. All general business, such as the election and installation of officers, the discussion of questions relating to the general interests of the Fraternity, and the local affairs of the Lodge, shall be transacted in a Master's Lodge.

SECTION TWO. The Lodge shall admit as members such only as are Master Masons. Any Brother, having been discharged for non-payment of dues, shall not be admitted to membership in any other Lodge until the same are paid or remitted. The receipt or certificate from the Secretary of the Lodge of which the applicant was last a member shall be satisfactory evidence that his dues have been liquidated.

SECTION THREE. The Master of any Lodge under this jurisdiction, who has faithfully discharged his duties and complied with the laws of the Grand Lodge, shall, at the end of his first year, be presented, by the District Deputy Grand Master, with a Past Master's Diploma.

SECTION FOUR. Any Lodge may take cognizance of the conduct of any sojourning Brother or Brethren, not attached to any particular Lodge, upon a charge of unmasonic conduct.

SECTION FIVE. No Lodge shall encourage, promote, or permit the delivery of any Masonic lectures which have not been sanctioned and authorized by the Grand Lodge. Nor shall any Mason be permitted to deliver such lectures under this jurisdiction.

SECTION SIX. No Lodge shall form a public procession, except to attend the funeral of a Master Mason, without permission from the Grand Master (or, in his absence, the Deputy Grand Master), or the District Deputy Grand Master, within whose district it is located.

SECTION SEVEN. No Mason can be interred with the formalities of the Order, unless it be at his own special request, without a Dispensation from the Grand Master; nor, under any circumstances, unless he has been advanced to the degree of a Master Mason.

SECTION EIGHT. No Lodge, or officer or member of a Lodge, shall, under any circumstances, give a certificate or recommendation to enable a Mason to proceed from Lodge to Lodge as a pauper, or in an itinerant manner to apply to Lodges for relief.

SECTION NINE. It shall not be permitted to introduce political or other exciting topics for discussion in any Lodge under this jurisdiction.

SECTION TEN. A Lodge ought to meet once in each calendar month, but may, with propriety, adjourn during the summer months of June, July, and August.

SECTION ELEVEN. The Master of a Lodge has the special charge of its Charter, and it is his duty to see that it is carefully preserved. It must be present whenever the Lodge is opened.

SECTION TWELVE. A visiting Brother, having produced his Grand Lodge Certificate, or Diploma, has a right to call for the Charter of the Lodge he desires to visit.

SECTION THIRTEEN. No Brother shall be a member of more than one Lodge; nor shall he hold more than one office in the same Lodge, or in the Grand Lodge, at the same time.

SECTION FOURTEEN. The removal of a Brother into another jurisdiction does not, of itself, authorize his name to be stricken from the roll of the Lodge of which he is a member.

SECTION FIFTEEN. No Mason, not a member of some subordinate Lodge, shall be allowed to visit the same Lodge in the place where he resides more than twice, without the permission of the Master or vote of the Lodge.

SECTION SIXTEEN. No Lodge can suspend the operation of a By-Law; nor, at a Special Meeting, alter or amend any part of the proceedings of a Stated one.

SECTION SEVENTEEN. No Brother ought to be elected Master of a Lodge who has not served at least one year in the office of Warden.

SECTION EIGHTEEN. No Lodge of Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons can legally assemble in this Commonwealth under a Warrant granted by any foreign Masonic power.

SECTION NINETEEN. It shall not be legal for any Lodge to interfere with the business or concerns of another Lodge.

SECTION TWENTY. Any vote passed in the Grand Lodge, or by any subordinate Lodge, may be reconsidered at the same meeting, or at the next subsequent meeting, provided notice of the intention to move for such a reconsideration shall be given at the meeting at which the vote was originally passed.

SECTION TWENTY-ONE. A Lodge or Brother offending against any law or regulation of the Craft, or of this Grand Lodge, to the breach of which no penalty is attached, shall, at the discretion of the Grand Lodge, be subject to admonition, suspension, or expulsion.

SECTION TWENTY-TWO. No permanent regulation of this Grand Lodge shall be repealed or amended at the meeting at which such repeal or amendment is proposed, nor until it has been duly considered by a committee, to be chosen by the Grand Lodge at a previous Quarterly Communication. And every Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, within the territorial limits of Massachusetts, shall be served, by the Recording Grand Secretary, with an attested copy of such proposed repeal or amendment within thirty days after the meeting at which such repeal or amendment is proposed. A majority of two-thirds of the votes cast shall be necessary for the adoption of any amendment.

SECTION TWENTY-THREE. No Lodge shall apply for, receive, or act under any corporate Charter granted by any Legislature or political government; and the receiving such Charter of incorporation, or acting thereunder by any Lodge under this jurisdiction, shall operate as a surrender and revocation of its Masonic Charter or Warrant from this Grand Lodge.

PART SIXTH.

CONFERRING DEGREES.

The following Order was adopted by the Grand Lodge, June 4, 1843, and makes part of these Constitutions.

“Ordered, That from and after the passage of this Order, it shall not be regular to give more than one degree to the same individual on the same day, nor at a less interval than one month from his receiving the previous degree, unless a Dispensation shall have been obtained therefor.”

SKETCH
WINSLOW LEWIS LODGE,
AND
LIST OF MEMBERS.

ORIGIN OF THE LODGE.

WINSLOW LEWIS LODGE owes its existence to the necessities of the Fraternity of which it is a member.

With the exception of the Germania Lodge, working in a foreign language, no Lodge had been instituted in Boston city proper for half a century.

The popularity of the institution at this time crowded its doors with eager applicants. Of these, enough were admitted to compel the existing Lodges to devote all their time and energies to the mere ceremonies of initiation, to the entire exclusion of Masonic lectures from their just and true place in the Lodge.

The social element was, by the amount of business, driven from the Lodge-room ; and members passed their time more after the fashion of visitors at theatres, than in the social communion of brethren of one happy family, as they ought to do.

At the urgent request of many brethren, and in accordance with the strongly expressed wish of the Grand Master, sixteen active members of St. John's Lodge, — the oldest Lodge on this continent, — after being joined by others, with feelings of reluctance at parting from their Masonic mother, obtained a dispensation, by the unanimous vote of the Grand Lodge, on the twenty-seventh day of December, 5855.

It should be remarked, however, that those who were officers and members of St. John's Lodge continued to serve their honored parent during the entire year of the dispensation ; whereby she was saved any inconvenience from their departure.

After a year of great prosperity under the dispensation, a charter was, by entire unanimity, granted by the Grand Lodge, December 10, 5856, and the lodge was regularly consecrated, on the 26th of the same month, by the M. W. Winslow Lewis, Grand Master, assisted by the R. W. John T. Heard, Acting Deputy Grand Master, and other eminent Masons. The occasion was one of the greatest impressiveness, owing to the relations between the Lodge and the Grand Master, who announced these ceremonies to be his last official act.

The name of the Lodge was selected because of the strong personal friendship existing between the members of the new Lodge and the Grand Master, added to a high appreciation of his untiring and invaluable labors for the good of the institution, and of his great worth as a good man and a true Mason.

The constitutional consent was given by St. Andrew's Lodge, together with the use of their regalia, until the new Lodge supplied themselves ; which act of brotherly love was fully appreciated by Winslow Lewis Lodge, who presented a gavel to St. Andrew's Lodge, as an emblem of their desire that the two Lodges should be strongly welded together.

The success of the Lodge, in the amount of work, and in its financial prosperity, has more than equalled the anticipations of its founders ; and their anticipations in other respects have been, to a great extent, realized.

In reviving the ancient, but long-forgotten practice of requiring real proficiency, before advancement from one degree to another, they have been as successful as they could be, in the absence of any positive requirement from the Grand Lodge.

By limiting its number, and requiring a larger fee for membership than usual, it is hoped that the social element, for which, in a great measure, the Lodge was founded, may be secured, and, by means of the "Members' Fund," to establish a permanent charity.

The Master's elegant Jewel, made in London, and presented by the Grand Master, and the other Jewels, made to correspond with it in style and finish, and all presented by members of the Lodge, are, together with the working tools and regalia, of a character of which the Lodge may be justly proud.

This is but a slight sketch of a history occupying many pages on the records, of great interest to the members, and full of pleasing incidents, which are now so green in their memories, that it is deemed unnecessary at present to publish them.

SEPTEMBER, 1858.

DR. LEWIS' ADDRESS

AT THE CONSECRATION OF

WINSLOW LEWIS LODGE,

BOSTON, DECEMBER 26, 1856.

AMID the varied embarrassments of a varied life, of the many positions in which circumstances have placed me, where there was a demand for readiness of action or of speech, — and there have been many, when, by a species of “floundering,” I have escaped, surprised at the survival, — none has so palled my serenity, or so overcome my self-possession, as the present one. I have addressed Lodges abroad in bad French, have ventured, in worse Italian, a speech to the Grand Duke of Tuscany, and even succeeded tolerably with his Holiness Pius IX. But these all were such as befall the many who visit such “lions,” or witness the “elephant” here and there. This has a more difficult aspect, producing, W. Master, that unpleasant peculiar action, well known to those illy gifted in speech (not, sir, that you have so suffered) where “vox hæsit faucibus.”

To you, Worshipful Master, I address myself, as both my Masonic and Professional Brother, — as one deservedly high in both relations, with a heart for others' woes, and a skill to minister to the mind diseased. And it would seem that Masonry and medicine are not deemed incompatible by our brethren, — that there was almost some alliance or connection between them. It certainly cannot be, that there is any disease in the Order ; and, therefore, these are selected to that duty which they are supposed best to understand, — the administering to morbid bodies ! Surely not ! But the fact is determinate and prominent. Six of the Grand Masters of our venerable Grand Lodge were physicians. One fell, Liberty's first martyr, on Bunker's Heights ; three were Presidents of the Massachusetts Medical Society ; one is now an eminent Professor of Surgery in the great school of Louisville, Ky. ; and the last is one not likely to fall for any service he may render his country, nor has he any aspirations in that direction ! Neither has he been, or ever will be, President of our State Medical Society. The only compliment to be paid him is, that he presided over the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts two years, and no harm befell it ! Both the Encampments of this city are excellently managed by M.D.'s, both adepts in wielding the lance for health as for chivalry ; and all our Lodges are teeming with the sons of Esculapius.

But the power, the extended peculiarity, of the connection, has been demonstrated this evening in the consecration of your new organization. It is chartered under the name of an humble medical individual, known only as an active Mason, and as one who cuts society with tolerable success ! By his official position, you have been inducted to the privileges of fellowship with the Lodges. Two of your first officers are of the Medical Corps ; and among you are included the professional Heads of the House of Correction, the Lunatic Asylum, and of the Quarantine, Deer Island, and United States Marine Hospital. What an array to meet any emergency which may befall a Body! And for those even who may require safe keeping, you have the Master of the Jail! I trust that this last Brother may find his office a sinecure as regards you all, and that you may never need his official hospitality or shelter! With these and others, true and trusty, you now commence your career as a duly and regularly constituted Lodge; and now is the period for laying the basis on which your superstructure is to rest, to regulate a platform of the requirements you demand from all who are to form your future associates, of those who are to be admitted to your Masonic hearth. The "Spiritualists," to insure the success of their operations, form a circle; and the efficiency of the manifestations they deem dependent on the "mediums" being consentaneous in their sentiments and feelings. One not sufficiently imbued breaks the harmony, and the efforts of the rest are null, ineffective. So compose your Masonic circle, that the electric chain may be unbroken, that the kindly spark may be transmitted through all, without discord of action or feeling, — that the same thrill of affection shall vibrate through every heart, producing that glorious manifestation, a Brotherhood dwelling together in peace and unity. You may not produce "rappings;" but every heart will beat more vigorously with pleasure's increased pulsation. You may not receive "communications" from the spirit-land; but be assured, all good angels hover over those who seek the well-being of their fellows, the promotion of diffused happiness.

How important is the act by which another is added to our Order, — by which the "Mr." is baptized into "Br.!" And alas! how much to be deplored when one is rejected from the privileges to which he may justly be entitled! Consider well what you do with your great power, — with your BLACK BALL, — which may wound not only the sensibilities, but the reputation, of a good man. Think before you act.

In the Lodges in France, and in the French Lodges in this country, whenever a ballot is taken for the solemn purpose of admitting or rejecting, the box is placed on the altar, resting on the Holy Bible, square, and compasses. The brethren advance singly, for a moment pause, take the ballot, and, making the sign of the degree, slowly deposit it. The effect of this is both impressive and good. It reminds them that what they are about to do is an act requiring calm consideration, — an act which involves deep responsibilities. Thus standing alone, in the centre of the Lodge, before the Altar of God, with God's Word there placed, with emblems also to remind him of his high duties, will the brother not shrink from the exercise of the malevolent passions, and let conscientiousness alone be his sole monitor? I commend this practice to your consideration. It will take a little more time, but its loss will be your gain.

My Brethren! — This is the last time that I shall be privileged to address a Lodge as Grand Master; and the last subject, but the first in importance, is the selection of your associates. I charge you, look well to, and ponder most seriously on, the effect of every ballot cast for admission. How much evil one black sheep may produce upon a whole flock! how “one bad voice will put twenty good ones out of tune!” Most seriously do I emphasize on the importance of the severest scrutiny into all the qualifications and peculiarities of those who are to be admitted into the “Household of your faith.”

There are men who, in the transactions of life, in their vocation, their business, are fair, just, and honorable; humane and generous at times; but who are endowed with a morbid excitability, a morbid jealousy, imputing wrong to all who may differ from them, and suspecting evil when none was practised or intended. Touch them however gently, and they explode, making confusion and strife, stirring up the angry passions, painful recriminations, and discord ; ever carping at the motives and actions of those whose judgments differ from their own ; scanning with the most acrid severity, and eagerly watching for an expression, ay, even for a look, on which they may eject their venom. Such, gifted with the power of "talk" (and generally such are loud and constant declaimers), "vox et præterea nihil," will too oft infuse their poison into the minds of the younger, collect around them a coterie, call this, perhaps, "Young America," and all others "old fogies." For them, age, experience, long-tried fidelity, are not the respected essentials. They would plough up the old soil without improving it, disturb the features of its ancient fields without any addition to their beauties, e'en though they shroud themselves, and all with them, in the dust and smoke of their innovations. Keep such out of your fraternal sanctuary ; but if, unluckily, you receive them, keep them down, if you wish to keep yourselves up. Scan well and probe deeply into the motives of those who would pass your threshold. Look to it, that they are not influenced by expectations of mere personal interest or selfish advance. To Freemasonry they are useless. In them you receive no accession. Both parties are aggrieved and disappointed. They find not what they sought, nor you what you hoped for. They throw no incense on the altar of the heart. They add no fuel to keep alive the sacred flame of Brotherly Love and Relief.

They are called to give, when they looked to receive. The real fund of Brotherhood and Friendship, of which they are made stockholders, to such is of no account. To them, "It don't pay ;" and the only satisfaction that will accrue to you is, that they will not trouble you long with their attendance ; but to you, the regret will attach, that, through you, drones have been added to a good hive, bringing no sweets, producing no addition but a miserable numerical one. Secure to yourselves those who give the promise of becoming useful as members of your Lodge, those who are capable of appreciating, and will devote their minds to, its ritual, qualify and instruct themselves to fill the important stations as officers and leaders in the cause. Failing to secure such, how large may be your numbers, but how weak your organization!—how ineffective, how lifeless, how totally unimpressive your ceremonies! and consequently how feeble the impress on your initiates! I have seen the most solemn degree of Masonry gone through with (that is the proper phrase), and its impress on the recipient fall cold and powerless. The sublime monitions came as it were from a machine, an automaton. “Words that should burn” were uttered by icy lips, from a frozen soul, from a stolid mind. That same degree has been given where the candidate has evinced, by his emotions, his tears, that his heart was reached to its very centre, was penetrated to its keenest and best susceptibilities; and why? Because it was properly administered, by one who understood and felt, and could communicate with the strong force of action and delivery. This was the touch of Ithuriel, quickening into life; the other, the deadening weight of a stupid Bæotian. The one, the inanimate statue; the other, the vital, breathing, warm original. Select for your officers those whose position in society is prominent, well known, and esteemed,—not for their worldly wealth, but for the eminence of their characters, for honesty, benevolence, moral worth, and intelligence. The world looks to our officers as our “Representative Men,” as the exponents of our principles and actions. Show to it, that your jewels are also those who are prized as citizens, as honored members of the general community. Besides character and position in life, knowledge of the work and lectures, there are other requirements: courtesy, mildness, judgment, grace, should be sought for in your choice. Place no dictator at your head, — no “lex et ego” autocrat. The car of Masonry needs no such drivers ; and 'tis a truism, “From where there is no judgment, that the heaviest judgment comes.”

My brethren, receive these suggestions from one deeply interested in your welfare and success, crude and disjointed as they are, unpolished and unadorned : though they may lack mind, the heart is not wanting.

And now, how can I thank you for the great compliment, ay, for the greatest honor of my life ? In “storied urn or animated bust,” posthumous rewards and praises are given to the departed. But here, while among you, with the chance whether my humble reputation may be sustained or lost, you have founded an institution, and attached to it my name. Be assured, it will be the strongest incentive to preserve the little I possess of what is good ; and, if that little should be less, you may still preserve your name without a blush, by using still the same, which, throughout a long, useful life, in the performance of life's highest duties, was attached to an old Mason, my honored father. My grateful thanks to you all ; and though the unpretending name on your banner will not excite your emulation in a cause whose course is onward and upward, may it remind you of one who did his best of what God had favored him, in advancing that Order whose end is “Peace on earth, good will to men !”

To those who have just commenced their Masonic career, permit me, who have reaped so much of the harvest of my life's happiness from its fertile fields, enjoyed so profusely of its blessings through so long a period, now, as my official duties are almost closed, to declare with gratitude, that to this connection I am indebted for the best friends, the best social blessings, that can accrue to one, without the pale of his own family hearth. So may you all thus find the result with you in your new fraternal relation! May the light now kindled on your altar shed on your paths the most genial and cheering radiance!

“Almighty Jehovah!

Descend now, and fill

This Lodge with thy glory,

Your hearts with good will!

Preside at your meetings,

Assist you to find

True pleasure in teaching

Good will to mankind.”
